

December 2025 Newsletter

Myself and the whole team would like to wish our school community a restful, safe and happy Christmas.

Best Wishes to you all for a Merry Christmas and a happy, healthy and peaceful 2026.

Thank you to FOG for the very successful Christmas Fayre, your hard work and support of school is very much appreciated by the staff and the children. FOG raised over £2700 which all goes to enrich the experiences the children have in school. Thank you again FOG.

Reception 2026 School Applications
The closing date for online applications is 15 January 2026.

Stay and Play

Stay and Play is based in the Family Room, a school building. It is a place where you can spend time together with your child/children in a calm and friendly place. Fun can be had inside with playdough, jigsaws, floor toys, creative arts and much more. Outside activities include - playhouses, making castles in the sand and ride on toys. Our sessions are free. We meet on Wednesday mornings, doors open at 9am and the session finishes at 10.55am (term time only). A few places are still available. For more information please speak to Mrs Allison or the school office.
