

February 2026 Newsletter

Book Week Monday 2nd March - Friday 6th March 2026. The children will be enjoying lots of oracy and drama activities during book week. We have author Catherine Barr in school all day on Monday 2nd, running workshops for the children. (Thank you FOG.) There will also be an author book buying and signing, for children with their parents, in the library at the end of the day (until 4pm). The Roving Bookshop will be in school on Wednesday and all classes will have the opportunity to visit. If you would like your child to purchase a book, please send them to school with their money. If parents would like to attend with their child, it will be open until 4:30pm.

Back by popular demand - Character Wooden Spoons Competition. Design and decorate a wooden spoon as your favourite book character. All competition entries need to be in school on Tuesday 3rd March for judging.

Dress as a book character on Friday 6th March. (If you would like to, if not just wear school uniform.) Please don't buy a costume just for this day.

Easy costumes from everyday clothes - Matilda: A blue dress, a red ribbon in the hair and a stack of books. Where's Wally: A red-and-white striped top, jeans, a bobble hat and glasses. Charlie Bucket (Charlie and the Chocolate Factory): Regular clothes (or a scruffy outfit), a homemade "Golden Ticket" (yellow paper) and a chocolate bar. Paddington Bear: A blue coat, a red hat and a small suitcase. Hermione Granger (Harry Potter): A white shirt, grey sweater, black skirt or trousers and a homemade wand. Diary of a Wimpy Kid: A white T-shirt and black shorts. Burglar Bill: A dark-and-white striped top, trousers and a homemade mask. Tintin: A blue sweater, brown trousers and hair gelled into a quiff. Pippi Longstocking: A mismatched dress, striped tights, and hair braided with wire to stick out.

School uniform is very important and children are expected to come to school appropriately dressed every day. Please refer to the 'Uniform Expectations' sheets which has been shared numerous times. PE days are NOT 'wear what you like' days!
