Year 4 Geography: What Makes London a Great City?

Prior Learning

- Know the continents of the world
- Different types of maps can be used for different purposes
- Maps uses symbols and keys
- People travel to different places for different reasons
- Tourism creates lots of jobs and generates lots of money

Sticky Knowledge

- I can use a map to locate countries with Europe
- I can match European countries to their flags
- I can locate counties and cities of the United Kingdom
- I can plan a route to London
- I can explain that people travel to different places for different reasons
- I can explain that tourism is important because it creates lots of jobs and generates lots of money
- London has lots of landmarks that attract visitors (Big Ben, Buckingham Palace, Houses of Parliament, the London Eye, as well as lots of museums, galleries, theatres and shops)

Vocabulary

Human features	Features of the land that have been impacted by human activity
Physical features	Natural features of the land.
Landmark	A building or feature which is easily recognised
Capital city	The city or town where the central government of a county is located.
Route	A way of getting from a start point to a finish point
Tourists	People who travel to a different place other than their home often for leisure purposes.
Population	all the inhabitants of a particular place.