

Year 4 Geography: What Makes London a Great City?

Prior Learning

- Know the continents of the world
- Different types of maps can be used for different purposes
- Maps uses symbols and keys
- People travel to different places for different reasons

Sticky Knowledge

- I can use a map to locate countries within Europe
- I can match European countries to their flags
- I can locate countries and cities within the United Kingdom
- I can plan a route to London
- I can explain that people travel to different places for different reasons
- I can explain that tourism is important because it creates lots of jobs and generate money
- London has lots of landmarks that attract visitors (Big Ben, Buckingham Palace, Houses of Parliament, the London Eye, as well as museums, galleries, theatres and shops)

Vocabulary

Human features	Features of land that have been impacted by human activity
Physical features	Natural feature of the land
Landmark	A building or feature which is easily recognised
Capital city	The city where central government of a country is located
Route	A way of getting from a start point to a finish point
Tourist	People who travel to a different place other than their home often for leisure purposes
Population	All the inhabitants of a particular place